The METHOD of making Mental Prayer

from: The Way of Salvation, by St. Alphonsus de Liguori

Mental prayer consists of three parts; the preparation, the meditation, and the conclusion. The preparation consists of three acts: one of faith in the presence of God; of humility, with a short act of contrition; and of prayer to be enlightened: saying as follows, for the first: "My God, I believe that Thou art present with me, and I adore Thee with all the affection of my soul."

For the second: "O Lord, by my sins I deserve to be now in hell; I repent, O Infinite Goodness, with my whole heart, of having offended Thee."

For the third: "My God, for the love of Jesus and Mary, give me light in this prayer, that I may profit by it." Then say a Hail Mary to the Most Blessed Virgin, that she may obtain light for us; and a Glory be to the Father, to St. Joseph, to your guardian angel, and to your patron saint, for the same end. These acts should be made with attention, but briefly; and then you go on directly to the meditation.

In the meditation, you can always make use of some book, at least at the beginning, and stop where you find yourself [more deeply] touched. St. Francis de Sales says that in this we should do as the bees, which settle on a flower as long as they find any honey in it, and then pass on to another.

It should also be observed, that the fruits to be gained by meditation are three in number: to make affections, to pray, and to make resolutions; and in these consist the profit to be derived from mental prayer.

After you have meditated on some eternal truth, and God has spoken to your heart, you must also speak to God; and first, by forming affections, be they acts of faith, of thanksgiving, of humility, or of hope; but above all repeat the acts of love and contrition.

St. Thomas says, that every act of love merits for us the grace of God and paradise: "Every act of love merits eternal life." Each act of contrition obtains the same thing. Acts of love are such as these: "My God, I love Thee above all things! I love Thee with all my heart! I desire to do Thy will in all things. I rejoice that Thou art infinitely happy," and the like.

For an act of contrition it is enough to say: "O Infinite Goodness, I repent of having offended Thee!"

In the second place, you must pray; ask God to enlighten you, to give you humility or other virtues, to grant you a good death and eternal salvation; but above all, His love and holy perseverance.

And when the soul is in great aridity, it is sufficient to repeat: "My God, help me! Lord, have mercy on me! My Jesus, have mercy!" And if you do nothing but this, your prayer will succeed exceedingly well.

In the third place, before finishing your prayer, you must form a particular resolution; as, for instance, to avoid some occasion of sin, to bear with an annoyance from some person, to correct some fault, and the like.

Finally, in the conclusion, three acts are to be made: in the first, we must thank God for the inspirations we have received; in the second, we must make a determination to observe the resolutions we have made; in the third, we must ask God, for the love of Jesus and Mary, to help us to keep our resolution.

The prayer concludes by the recommendation of the souls in purgatory, the prelates of the Church, sinners, and all our relatives and friends, for which we may say an Our Father and a Hail Mary.
